"A smile happens in a flash, but its memory can last a lifetime."

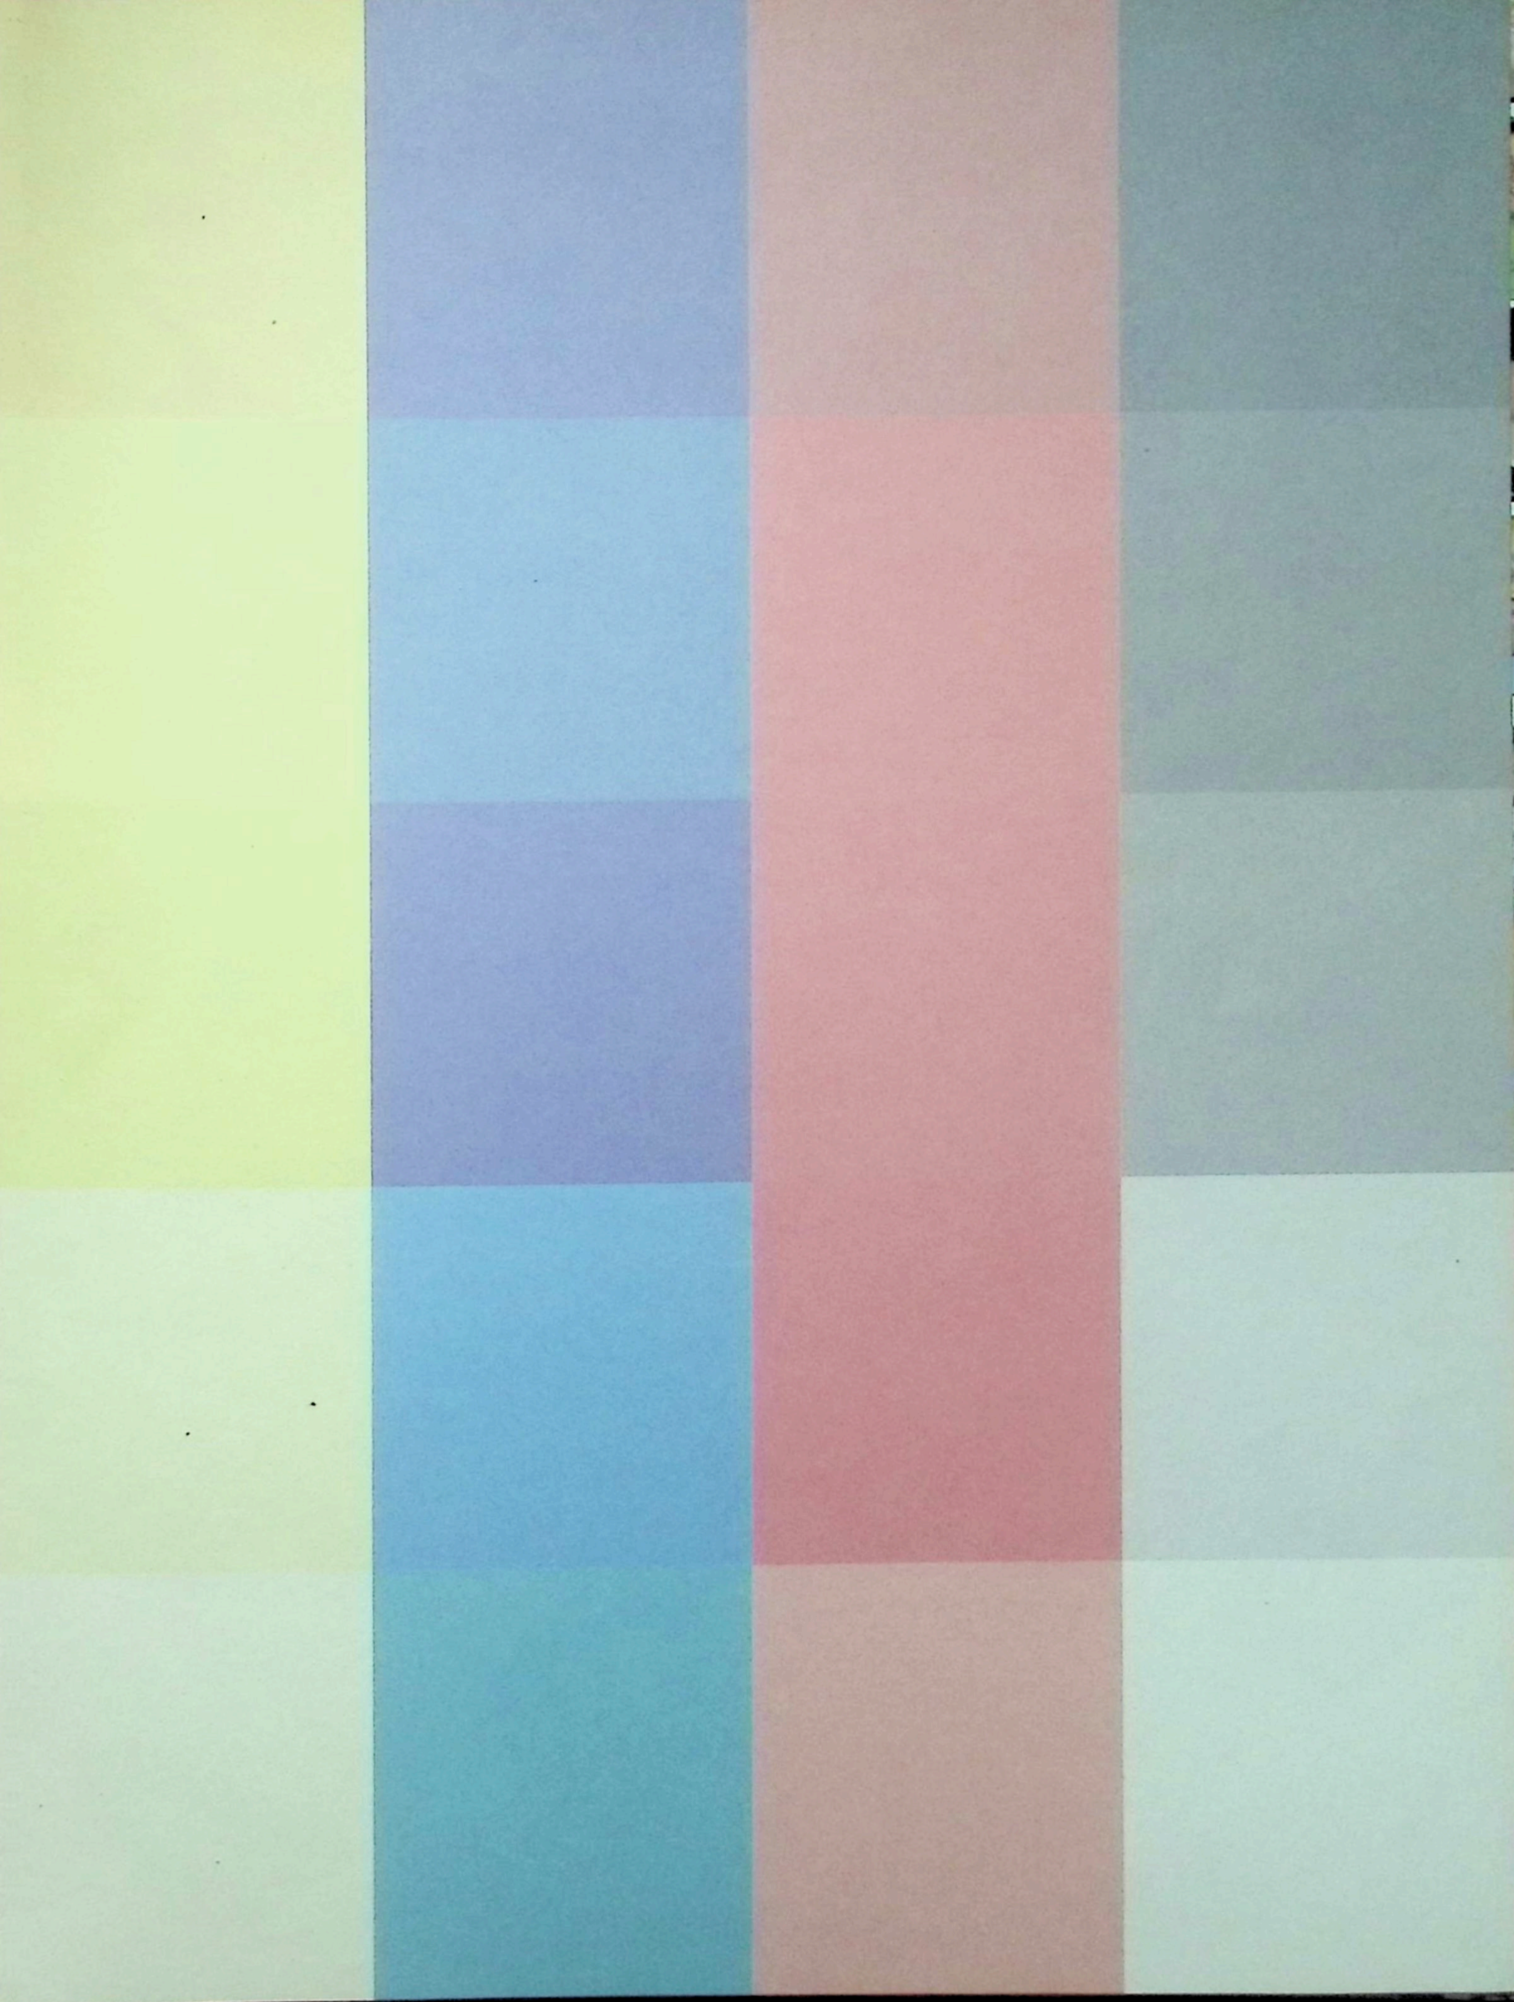
Heisey, Ty



You know what they say, a picture is worth a thousand words. A photograph may be just a picture, but it's the meaning behind it that is worth our time of laughter. Every glimpse we take may not be wasted after all. Throughout this crazy year, all memories have been from the first day of school to homecoming to high school prom to graduation, and we've smiled more than a million times for those camera flashes. Just think, when you see every photo that exists on these pages or anywhere else in the world, you remember not only a smile that was captured in a millisecond flash, also the memories behind it. These are memories that last a lifetime.

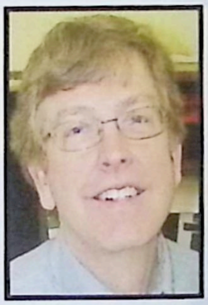
Chris Duck

Columbia Campus

Christopher Duck, "Chris," is a highly skilled behavior specialist and advocate for deaf children and their families who began his career at MSD in 1974. He started as a teacher at Columbia and quickly became attached to working with Special Needs children. By 1981 he was our Behavior Specialist. Chris has worked and studied hard all his life. In addition to his degrees, Chris continued with his training and coursework to become a Board Certified Behavior Analyst.

Chris is invaluable to the school. His ability to help goes well beyond mere management of behaviorally troubled students. He assists the teachers directly in areas like attending, responding on task, toileting, and communicating. Recently, Chris has been working to improve the language development of younger language delayed students. Chris meets with parents to provide them support, and bus drivers to help them understand the difficulties of our students. Chris also trains all staff annually on basic principles of behavior management and many on specific Crisis Management techniques.



It is hard to know which comes first, Chris the person or Chris the Behavior Specialist. His identity as the "guy to call" when there is trouble is almost legendary. There is always a sense of increased comfort at Columbia when we know Chris is around. He is a caring individual, who after giving MSD 34 years of great service, is still going strong.

Stacey Farone

Frederick Campus

Stacey Farone grew up in Chicora, a small town in Pennsylvania. In 1995, she received her B.S. in Chemistry and B.A. in Psychology from Gannon College in Erie and her M.A. in Deaf Education from the University of Pittsburgh.

Stacey's career started at MSD in 1998. She has taught Language Arts, Math, and Science in our Elementary and Middle School, and currently teaches High School Chemistry, Physics, and a newly developed course in Forensic Science. Stacey has been a sponsor for the classes of 2003 and 2010. She is co-sponsor of the International Orioles, and the co-founder of the Senegal Connection, a community service venture working to improve the lives of the deaf community in Senegal. In 2007, Stacey being the only teacher from America was selected to participate in an educational exchange program to Bangladesh.

Stacey is an exceptional teacher who is knowledgeable in her field and who encourages high academic standards in the classroom. The students at MSD are proud and fortunate to have such an involved, supportive, and dedicated teacher as Stacey Farone.

Get to know our staff!!!

Q: What is your favorite quote and why?

Elizabeth Reed: " The child should feel that he is a reader, not a rememberer." by Marie M. Clay. I like this quote because I hope that all children grow to love books and become life-long readers.

Q: What was your best/worst memory of high school?

Penelope Miller: The best memory of high school was being a nerd. Unfortunately, being a nerd also was the worst memory of high school. (There's nothing wrong with being a nerd!)

Q: If you could trade places with anyone for one day, who would it be? why?

Jessica vonGarrel: I would like to trade places with Madonna for a day. She leads an interesting life and has accomplished a lot. As a dancer myself, I would like to see what her day is like as a singer, dancer and mother, businesswoman, etc....

Q: If you had to only eat one thing for the rest of your life, day in and out, what would it be?

Brandee Seaman: Chicken... any kind of chicken such as nuggets,fingers,patties and grilled.

Q: What is your biggest fear?

Leigh Clapp:
Running out of books to read.

Q: If you could live forever, would you want to?

Patrick Rosenburg:
No way, Jose! What is life without death? All good things must come to an end.

In Memory of ...

DeShawna Brown

DeShawna Brown, Class of 2010, passed away in her home on September 13, 2008.

DeShawna received her education in the Baltimore area, then transferred to the Maryland School for the Deaf in Columbia. After graduating from the eighth grade, DeShawna transitioned to the Frederick Campus and became a full-time residential student. DeShawna worked hard in all of her classes. She especially loved going to the library, job training, swimming and field trips. DeShawna had many friends at school and was always ready to lend a hand to anyone. Despite many personal challenges, DeShawna was determined to face each day with joy and share her happiness with others. Church-life was important to DeShawna, she participated in many events with her family. It is difficult knowing that DeShawna Brown is gone. However, such a bright and happy young woman certainly left her mark on all of us. It was indeed an honor and a joy to have known DeShawna as a friend and as a student. DeShawna Brown will be missed, but not forgotten.

~Farewell Letter From the Superintendent~

May 30, 2009

Dear Members of the Graduating Class of 2009,

Warmest congratulations to each of you as you have reached a milestone in your lives: High School Graduation! You are ready to take the next step as you move on to colleges and universities, to training programs, or to the world of work.

President Barack Obama will now lead our country and the "free world" in our war against terrorism. Our troops are still in Iraq and Afghanistan and many parts of the world fighting an enemy that is elusive and without country borders. President Obama is reaching out to our friends as well as our foes. We have come a long way and still have long way to go in securing world peace.

Challenging domestic issues such as deep recession, banking crisis, rising unemployment rates, house foreclosures, and affordable health care continue to dominate our national debate. Each one of us needs to be informed and if possible involved with local, national, and global issues. Each one of us must be a registered voter, and vote in local and national elections.

Our world is constantly evolving... What you have learned yesterday and today may not be applicable for tomorrow. Each of one of us should always be prepared to learn new ideas, concepts, and skills. We all must be life-long learners!

Members of the MSD Community are honored to be part of your "MSD Education" and we wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. You are always welcome to visit us and share "world experiences" with our younger students!

Best wishes,

James E. Tucker
Superintendent

Our Sweet Reina,

Having you and finding out you were Deaf put our family in very uncharted waters. But your Father and I believe that GOD had a plan for us/you the day you were born into a totally hearing family. You have taught us so much since July 5, 1991! We have learned patience, determination, perseverance, and even another language just by being your parents. Your brothers have looked up and will always look up to you with respect, love, and adoration. We all know that no matter what you do in your life, you will always be successful. Always know Momi, Papi, Tony and Noah love you very much and are proud of all your achievements.

Love,
Momi, Papi, Tony and Noah
(Barney, Tazzie, Cave Man, Drey, And your crazy hamsters, too!)

Reina,

We have watched you grow through all the stages—— from a sweet baby to an enthusiastic and active child, and now a beautiful young woman. You have brought us a lot of happiness along the way. As you graduate from high school, we are very proud of you. We have a lot of confidence in you and feel this is only the first of many accomplishments in your life. Follow your dreams, work hard and know that we will always love, support and cheer you on.

Love,
Gramma and Pap Pap

Querida Reinita,

Siento mucho que no hayas podido venir a Mexico con tu papá para el Día de Los Muertos. Supimos que te vas a graduar este año. Deseamos que tú y tus amigos la estén pasando bien y que tu graduación sea de lo más agradable; la familia aquí está muy orgullosa de ti.

Esperamos que después de terminar tus estudios en esta escuela, prosigas tu educación en la Universidad. Sabemos que vas a volver pronto y te apoyaremos en cualquier carrera que tú escojas.

Te recuerda y te quiere mucho
Tu abuelito

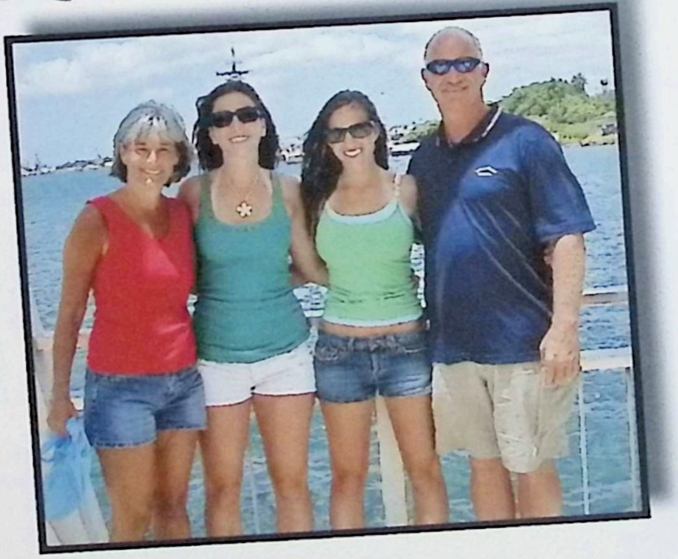
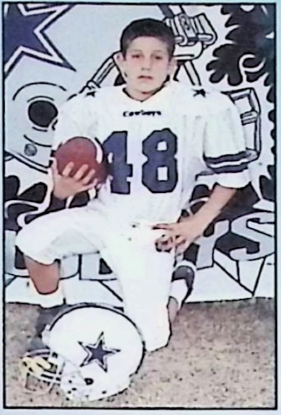
Little Sister Lauren,
Though there have been and still are times when we annoy the heck out of each other, you know I am proud of you. I love your will to be the person you want to be... even if it means to snowboard instead of skiing! Well, after 18 (long) years of school days, you're off to Gallaudet, with me once again. Congratulations!
I love you,

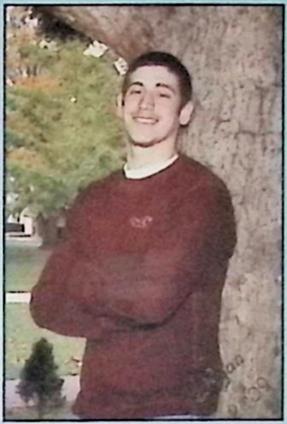
Big Sister Rachel



Dear Lauren,
As always, I am so proud of you. You sure know how to negotiate to achieve your goals or intentions. I love watching you play in all sports and look forward to more of this. Love, Dad



Ryan Michael Bonheyo



To our dearest son, Ryan,

Words cannot describe the pride and joy you have brought into our lives from the day you were born until the day you walk across the stage to get your high school diploma. Your determination to succeed has gotten you even further with a full football scholarship to Towson University! We admire your determination, commitment and dedication to reach your goals. Congratulations on your achievements, Ryan! We are very proud and fortunate to have a wonderful son like you! You gave us plenty of wonderful memories and we will cherish them. Even though we know our lives will never be the same as soon as you walk out the door, we are confident that you will do even better in your new chapter of life. Just remember to visit us because there is no place like home!

Lots of love and hugs,
Mom and Dad

Ryan,

Sixteen years of living with you, from backyard football to getting beaten to playing sports together to becoming obsessed with Wii to our beloved Gmail experience. What more can I say about you? I'm going to be a proud Tiger fan rooting for the best brother in the world!

Love,
Todd

Dear Lauren,
Your family is so very proud of all your accomplishments at MSD! You have grown to be a beautiful young lady with the world waiting for you. Looking back over these 12 plus years, and thinking about the change that is about to occur we share excitement, as to what the next chapter of your life will bring. The completion of High School is one of life's major milestones, I know from your perspective it seems like the attainment of a goal, which it is. But you must remember though, that it is only one of the building blocks towards success, there are many challenges yet to be overcome! We do not mean to minimize your accomplishment, only to spur you on to meet your goals in life. The world has no idea what it is in for with you becoming of age. Always remember the following,

Do not become weary in doing good works, for at the proper time you will reap a harvest if you do not give up!

To My Coolest Sister Erwica!
What can I say that describes a sister as perfect as you? For many years, you were always one step behind me...challenging me, admiring me, and being 100+ more than a "typical sister". In the past few years, you were right beside me...still challenging me to be my best, but also wowing me with how awesome YOU are! I always love teasing you, and being teased by you. I can't wait to hear you complain about all the homework you will have the first semester of college! But more than that, I can't wait to hear about all the awesome new things you're doing in your life. Your wings are attached strong...it's time to watch you fly!

Nick-

The moment you came into the world, my life changed.
It has been an extraordinary journey for me as a mother.

Such a tiny bundle, yet so powerful that my heart
Burst with unconditional love, so tender.
That's how vigorous love could be.

A great teacher, you have been to me.
Such valuable lessons I have learned over the years.
Patience, love, compassion, joy, faith, creativity.

All these years I've observed you, along with My caring, precious guiding hand, you have grown
From a curious toddler into a bright young man.

It will take all my might to lend your hand from mine
Into the world, waiting for your guidance and knowledge.
It won't be easy for me to let my first-born son go but . . .

I believe in you, I believe that you can succeed in whatever you are aiming for.

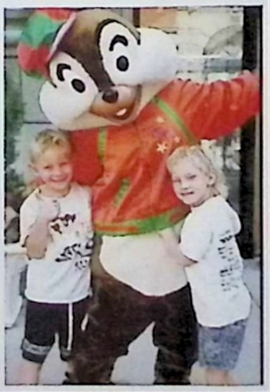
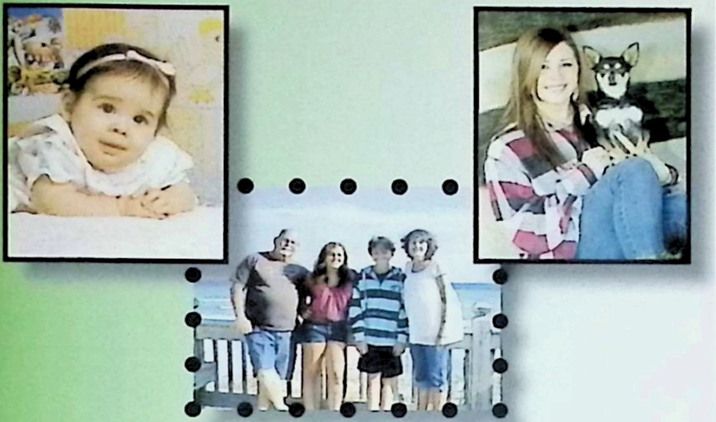
I love you!
Mom

Nick,
Biggest congratulations on your graduation! I have been watching you, as my first-born son, grow up through the years of your life since day one. I am extremely proud of you for all the accomplishments you have made during the adventures and challenges in school, sports, activities and many other great things. I want to thank you for all those wonderful years and joy you have bought to me in my life.
I wish you all the best in your future. I love you very much.
Love always,
Dad

Nick,
Nobody could be a better brother than you, basically everything I learned came from you. Don't worry, I won't need your room since mine is already bigger :). I will only need your computer monitor :).
Love, Shawn





our Darling Amelia,

we are so proud of your achievements. we have watched you grow from an adorable and shy little girl into a strong mind, independent, and beautiful lady.
we are very proud of you!

Congratulations, Amelia!
we love you,
Mom, Dad, Daniel, and Squirt

Corey.....
Congratulations on your academic achievement! Wish you the best in your future.
Love, Dad, Mom, & Alicia

Dear Chenae,
As you embark on the next chapter of your life, we wish you all that has marked this chapter: family, friendship, perseverance, kindness, and success. May the days ahead overflow with blessings and contentment; may your dreams be vivid and journey safe. Follow your dreams! Believe in yourself and the ability to accomplish your endeavors! May you always walk through life's journey with confidence and strength. We are so proud of you and truly inspired by the person you've become.

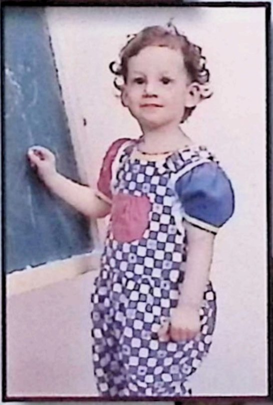
Congratulations To My Favorite Daughter Jessica,
Wow, you have grown from my first baby girl into a young pretty lady. I cannot believe you will graduate this year. I'm so proud of your accomplishments in education, sports and the person you have become. May you continue to achieve in your journey of life. I wish you success and happiness. I want you to know I will always love you, support you and believe you will follow your heart.

Love always,
Mom

My Dearest Daughter Jessica Heather Israel,
WOW- From your birth to present, you have brought me so much joy. You have accomplished so much growing up. You've been around the world learning other cultures, their educational and social systems. Your sound judgment and belief in what is right or wrong will bring you many successes in life. I am very proud of you in so many ways. May your 17 years of academic achievement continue with you through college!

Good luck in your future,
Love Always,
Daddy



Hey Sis,
Wow, I can't believe that you are graduating already! I will miss you when you are at college, I will be home alone for another 3 years till I graduate! I hope you will have a blast time at college! :)
Love, your bro Zachary

Clayton Smith McMillan

Our Dear Son,

Congratulations!!! Clayton, remember your phenomenal speech on your platform "Eight Areas of Intelligence" ... you are truly a fine example of what it takes for people to recognize that every student is not limited to one but several areas of intelligence. You are not afraid, as we could see, to take risks and fly higher with your ambitions. Barack Obama's inauguration was a new birth of freedom and so is your graduation. As you embark on this significant milestone, always remember this ... Obama said "if you're walking down the right path and you're willing to keep walking, eventually you'll make progress." Your mother and father love you enough to let you "build the halfpipe as you fly" with the following quote by your friend, Shaun White to guide you ... "To me, it's about getting better every time and doing the best I can every run no matter where I am." We trust that you will continue to broaden your horizons and instill the three most important values of Love, Honesty and Respect in you as you begin to venture out and explore the world. You have been and always will be our clown who always brightens our days. We are so proud of you and your brothers now that you, as our last son, have graduated from high school. Good Luck, Son!

We love you so very much,
Mom and Dad

Clayton,

You are your own person and I admire you for creating the paths you want to walk on. You have your own dreams to capture. Once you graduate, I promise you that your diploma will allow you to be a butterfly seeking your dreams. Do not regret anything you have done in life because that's what has molded you for who you are today. Life is a ride!! Clayton Smith, fasten your seatbelt!

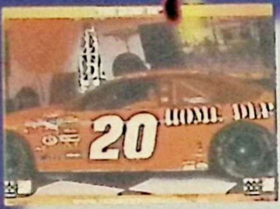
I love you,
Jonathan

Clayton,

Clayton A.K.A. "The McMillan Family Clown" ... you know this family experiences and grows with the first and last of many events. We've dealt with numerous occasions of the last and another is close at hand, the last McMillan is graduating from MSD. Like Daddy would say, "it's a hard pill to swallow." I'm having a hard time accepting that YOU are graduating and growing up. I've got one last thing to say though ... Gallaudet University, the life of independency, awaits you.

Love you,
Brandon

Crystal Lynn Arbaugh



Congratulations on your Graduation!

You did it! You've been going to school since you were 18 months old and now you're graduating. We are so proud of you. We know the last few years have been difficult
"But we faced the challenges together"
You went from our little girl to our beautiful young lady.
As you take the next steps of life, we wish you the best, and as always we will be there for you through it all.
We love you, always & forever

Clayton Ross Grossinger

Congrats! Time has arrived for you to go out and explore the world on your own. You've accomplished so much... You made us proud.
Love, Dad and Jane

Dearest Clayton,
High school's out!
Yay!!
Great!
Rocking!
Admirable!
Diligent!
Unbeatable!
Awesome!
Terrific!
Exciting!
You are all these and now also a Graduate!
You've done it!
Congratulations!
I'm very proud of you!
Whatever your dreams may be, may you follow them to success and happiness.
I love you very much,
Mom

Clayton,
Yea, time goes by too fast. Now it is my turn to say you are lucky that you don't have to do schoolwork anymore either! May you look forward to many more years to come with new memories.
Finally, you're the last one to graduate!
Love you baby brother,
Daniel

Clayton,
Congrats! It is about time that we all are done with high school! Good luck in everything you do. I will be watching :-)

Housing Crisis

The housing market hit crisis status in 2008. With the rise in unemployment, one in 10 homeowners was at least one payment behind on their mortgage or in foreclosure. Nationwide, median home prices fell more than 11 percent to $183,000—the largest year-over-year drop on record since 1968.

Billion-dollar Bailout

The U.S. Senate sparked intense debate when it approved a $700 billion plan to rescue Wall Street. The bailout came in response to months of retail sales decline, home foreclosures and record drops in the stock market (dropping 777 points on September 29). Worldwide $30.1 trillion of global stock market value was lost.

Americans Ditch Cars

With a recession in full swing and commuters concerned about record gas prices, drivers traded their cars for bikes. The Federal Highway Administration reported that Americans drove 9.6 billion fewer miles over the previous year. With consumers buying fewer cars, the big three American automakers felt the pinch. Seeking relief, they asked for and received a $13.4 billion piece of the federal bailout originally intended for Wall Street.

Hurricane Ike Hits Texas

Thousands of residents evacuated coastal and inland areas of Texas in preparation for Hurricane Ike, which turned out to be the third most destructive hurricane ever to hit the U.S. The early evacuation efforts (put in place after Hurricane Katrina) undoubtedly saved thousands of lives.

Energy Independence

The U.S. Congress agreed with President Bush's decision to lift the almost 20-year ban on offshore drilling operations. The high price of crude oil as well as the strategic importance of energy independence led to the decision.

U.S. Troops

After more than five years of war, plans to reduce the presence of U.S. troops in Iraq were moved forward. A new agreement between U.S. and Iraqi officials was ratified, outlining the withdrawal of U.S. troops by 2011. At the same time, in Afghanistan there were 31,000 U.S. troops, and that number is expected to double in 2009.

Cleared for Takeoff

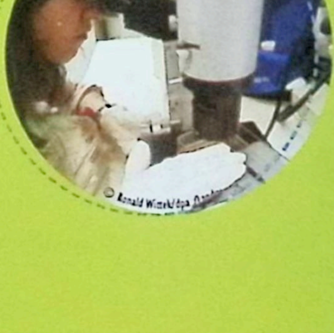
It's official—Delta bought Northwest Airlines for $3.1 billion, creating the world's largest airline. The combined new airline now serves more than 390 destinations in 67 countries. It is expected to generate about $35 billion in yearly revenue and employ 75,000 people.

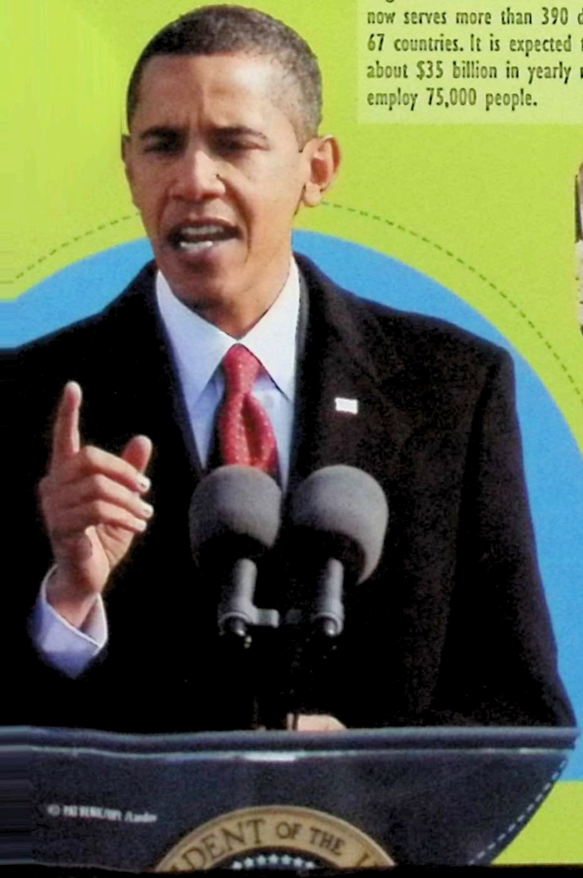
Winning against Cancer

New diagnoses and deaths from cancer both fell for the first time in the U.S. according to the National Cancer Institute's 2008 report. The overall death rates fell for the most common cancers, dropping .08 percent annually from 1999 to 2005 for both men and women. While overall cancer rates decreased, lung cancer remains a concern in the Midwest and the South. Both areas have yet to adopt anti-smoking laws that ban smoking in public places or to increase taxes on cigarettes.

Crisis in Gaza

The long-standing conflict in Gaza rose to war when hundreds of civilians lost their lives and thousands were injured in airstrikes and mortar shell attacks waged separately by the Israeli military and Hamas militant groups. Hamas is listed as a terrorist organization by the U.S. and many other Western nations. In January 2009, Israel withdrew its troops and the Hamas groups declared a cease-fire, ending the three-week war; however tensions between the two sides remain high.





Obama Elected 44th President

In a historic moment, 47-year-old Barack Obama, a freshman senator from Illinois, became America's first African-American president. In addition to shattering 200 years of history, he became the fifth youngest president ever when he was sworn in to office on January 20, 2009. In his inauguration speech, President Obama delivered a message of bipartisan hope and expectation to a crowd of over one million people in Washington D.C. and to millions more via television and the Internet.

Cease Fire

Following a short yet destabilizing conflict, the governments of Georgia and Russia signed a U.S. brokered cease-fire, which required all Russian troops to withdraw to their pre-invasion positions. The invasion was in response to Georgian suppression of Russian supported separatist rebels in the breakaway region of South Ossetia.

Earthquake Rocks China

A 7.9 magnitude earthquake rocked southwest China leaving 4.8 million people homeless. More than 60,000 people were injured while over 20,000 people lost their lives. To help rebuild the livelihoods, schools and basic services the area needs, several United Nations agencies have set up continuing operations in China.

Mumbai Targeted

Over three days in November, India's city of Mumbai was attacked by terrorists, allegedly backed by a Pakistani-based Islamic militant group. Over 160 people lost their lives in the planned attack which targeted India's financial center.

Prepared for Landing

In January 2009, US Airways' Pilot C.B. "Sully" Sullenberger prepared for impact less than 90 seconds after taking off from LaGuardia International Airport in New York, as Flight 1549's engines went out after hitting a flock of birds. The pilot decided the safest place to land was in the icy waters of the Hudson River. Pilot Sullenberger's skill and quick response saved the lives of all 155 passengers.

$50 Billion Fraud

The former chairman of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Bernard Madoff, was charged with running a $50 billion Ponzi scheme, in one of the biggest fraud cases in history. Madoff could face 20 years in prison and a $5 million fine if convicted. Madoff's actions may have cost some of the largest financial firms in the world hundreds of millions of dollars each.

Goodnight Nighthawk

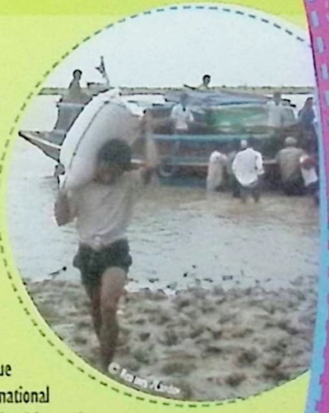
After three decades of exemplary service as the first aircraft in history to successfully make use of stealth technology, the F-117 Nighthawk was retired at a private military ceremony. The "Stealth" gained notoriety through now famous camera footage of its precision performance in Desert Storm in the early 1990s.

Adventurer to the End

Almost 13 months after adventurer Steve Fossett disappeared in a single-engine plane over Nevada and a year to the day since the search was called off, hikers found his airplane and remains in the Sierra Nevada Mountains. Fosset holds many world records including being the first person to fly solo nonstop around the world in a hot air balloon.

Myanmar Devastation

A massive cyclone hit the small country of Myanmar in May 2008, tallying an eventual death toll of over 100,000 people. The military government of Myanmar initially refused foreign aid and asserted that it could handle all relief and rescue efforts. According to International Red Cross reports, the lack of immediate international support most likely cost thousands of lives.



An Election to Remember

The nation witnessed several history-making events during the 2008 presidential election.

Alaskan Governor Sarah Palin became the first female Vice Presidential candidate for the Republican Party.

Bird, Mammal or Reptile?

One of the most curious animals on the planet, the platypus, has a duck's bill, mammal fur and snake-like venom. Scientists mapped its genetic makeup, which indicates that this strange looking creature is, in fact, a little bit of all three—bird, mammal and reptile.

Trash to Gas

The high price of gas in 2008 put a spotlight on the study of alternative fuel sources. In America, at the University of California at Davis, engineers repurposed table scraps into bio-gas. In similar studies in the United Kingdom and Japan, jellyfish, spoiled milk and confectionary waste were all given new life as alternative fuel sources.

Shipwreck Treasure

Geologists searching for diamonds off the coast of Africa discovered a treasure far more rare—a shipwreck loaded with gold and silver coins, as well as ivory and cannons used to fend off pirates. The ship is thought to be around 500 years old, dating back to the time of Vasco de Gama and Christopher Columbus.

Run Green

Did you know that a running shoe can last 1,000 years in a landfill? Brooks® has designed a shoe that reduces your carbon footprint—literally. The shoe features a new kind of midsole called BioMoGo, which degrades 50 times faster than a standard running shoe. Brooks® estimates that its green footwear will reduce 30 million pounds of landfill waste over a 20-year period.

Ancient Sea Creature Discovered

A new group of plesiosaurs, a reptile species that swam in ancient seas, was discovered in North America. The plesiosaurs roamed during the Jurassic and Cretaceous periods—about 65-205 million years ago. This find represents one of the oldest and most complete skeletons of a prehistoric aquatic reptile ever discovered in North America.

Farms of the Future

In the future, farms could rise straight into the air resembling skyscrapers instead of sprawling acres of land. "Vertical" farming presents many advantages over traditional farming, mainly growing more food on less land. Currently, it takes a plot of land as large as Virginia to grow enough food for approximately 8 million people.

Sustainable Dave

Cameraman Dave Chameides embarked on a study to reduce waste. To showcase his effort he saved all of his trash for one year—only 30.5lbs. In comparison, the average family throws away 1,700lbs of trash annually. Chameides conducts seminars and writes a sustainability blog teaching that "no one can do everything, but everyone can do something."

Stone or Glass?

Add countertops to the list of eco-friendly products. BottleStone, a Los Altos Hills company that makes ceramic stone countertops out of recycled glass, walked away with the $100,000 prize from the CleanTech Open, a contest showcasing the newest innovations in the world of sustainability. The company said that zero emissions are created in the production of the new surface material, yet the glass countertops are as strong as concrete and cost less than marble or granite.

Tejon Ranch Protected

Conservationists and developers in California reached a historic agreement that will permanently protect the Tejon Ranch, 240,000 acres of land just north of Los Angeles. The newly protected area provides a critical habitat to many wildlife species. The strong support for environmental conservation is a sign of the times and will guarantee public access for generations to come.

Running on Air

Zero Pollution Motors, together with automaker MDI, plans to produce an affordable, environmentally-friendly car powered by air. While it won't run like a sports car, it can reach speeds of 35 miles per hour for 60 miles on a tank of compressed air, a sufficient distance for 80 percent of consumers to commute to work and run errands. On highways, it can cruise at interstate speeds for 800 miles with a small motor that compresses outside air to keep the tank fueled. Vehicle sales are slated for 2011.

Super Earth Planets Discovered

Astronomers discovered 45 "super Earth" planets, indicating that one-third of all stars have a solar system in orbit with planets similar to Earth in size. Don't hold out for tiny green men, these planets orbit close to their stars (measuring mean temperatures of 354 degrees Fahrenheit) and cannot harbor life.

Colossal Carats

A potentially record-breaking diamond, totalling 478 carats, was found in the small southern African country of Lesotho. Although not the largest diamond found to date, this particular stone is valued for having the highest possible color rating for a white diamond and its potential to produce a polished stone of over 100 carats—now that's a rock!

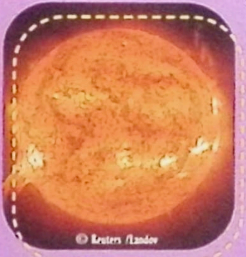
George Washington's boyhood home was discovered at Ferry Farm, along the Rappahannock River near Fredericksburg, Virginia. The exciting find revealed many artifacts that could have been used by Washington while he lived on the farm from 1738-1754. Archaeologists were able to piece together the home's structure, making it possible to build a replica.

Solar Wind Source Found



© Reuters /Landov

With the help of images shot from the Hinode space observatory, scientists pinpointed the source of the stream of particles that make up slow solar wind. Astronomers knew where fast solar wind originated but knew little about slow solar wind. Now scientists know that it comes from the region above the Sun's equator allowing them to better understand the dynamics of space weather and solar storms.

Under the Sea

A marine survey revealed thousands of discoveries from beneath the surface of the sea, including a city of starfish and a carpet of crustaceans. The Census of Marine Life is part of a worldwide project to understand life under the sea. The census is expected to reveal important information about 230,000 known marine species and possibly identify more than 5,500 new species.

Double-Dutch

Double-dutch is now an officially recognized sport in New York City high schools. A year after cricket was inducted as a varsity sport, school administrators have added double-dutch as a way to increase student participation in competitive sports. Cycling, badminton and netball are also being considered.

Striking Gold at the X Games

Ryan Sheckler, the X Games' youngest street skateboarding gold medalist at age 13 in 2003, struck gold again at the 2008 Games. Female skateboard champ, Elissa Steamer, returned to claim her fourth gold medal.

Eight is Great

Michael Phelps was the shining star of the 2008 Beijing Olympics, winning eight gold medals, breaking Mark Spitz's record for most gold medals won in a single Olympic Games. Phelps swam 17 times over nine days and broke the world record in four of his five individual swims. His three relay teams also set world records. Phelps' achievements led to Sports Illustrated naming him 2008 Sportsman of the Year plus numerous endorsements.

Serena's Comeback

A backhand shot signaled tennis star Serena Williams' return to glory. With her 6-4, 7-5 victory over Jelena Jankovic at the US Open, Williams regained the No. 1 world ranking, a title she last held in 2003. The gap between achieving No. 1 world rankings is the longest in history for a woman or a man.

Racing Victories

2008 was a year of surprises in car racing, especially for Danica Patrick and Jimmie Johnson. Patrick was in the spotlight, becoming the first woman ever to win an Indy Car race. Johnson won his third straight NASCAR Sprint title, making him one of two drivers in NASCAR history to win three championships in a row in the marquee series. With his win, Johnson tied Cale Yarborough's 30-year record.

Celtics Win 17th NBA Title

The Boston Celtics won their first NBA title in 22 years. In Game 6 of the playoffs they won with a 131-92 blowout over the Los Angeles Lakers. The win was also the first for the "Big Three," Paul Pierce, Kevin Garnett and Ray Allen.

Silver Stars Shock-ed
